

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: July 23, 2007

ARMALITE, INC ANNOUNCES ELMER ARMS LLC AS DISTRIBUTOR FOR NRC AND DOE

ArmaLite, Inc. owner, Mark Westrom has named Elmer Arms LLC as ArmaLite's exclusive distributor to supply their 7.62mm AR10's and 5.56mm M15 rifles to both the Nuclear Regulatory Commission and Department of Energy.

"This opportunity developed from a recent desire to supply both the NRC and the DOE with top quality defensive weapons," said David Hague, President and CEO of Elmer Arms LLC. "In competitive weapon trials, the ArmLites outperformed their competitors in multiple areas and were selected for service in this key energy sector. ArmaLite, Inc. and Elmer Arms LLC are a great fit; both are well-established American companies known for quality and reliability."

ArmaLite's Westrom stated that "ArmaLite is proud of its selection to provide these firearms, especially considering the thoroughness of the selection process. We consider these customers especially important to the United States and look forward to a long and strong relationship."

For more information, please visit www.armalite.com or call 800.366.0184.